THE JOURNEY OF MICROPLASTICS THROUGH FOODS

Is this what they call supplementary food now? This milk is nothing like my mother's milk.
If my parents are going to feed me plastics, why do they get mad at me when I put my toys in my mouth?
Am I going to be a plastic doll after eating these?
So how do these foods get on my plate?
Does everyone eat these foods?
Why is no one objecting to this?