The Balance of the World is in the Hands of Children

Consumption is increasing and the world is getting polluted rapidly.
Reduce consumption to avoid pollution.
Use recycling bins effectively.
It is in the hands of us children to prevent the world from being polluted and destabilized.
Stand behind us as we take care of our future.